A LOOK INSIDE HIGHER EDUCATION

I.R.I.S. A CANON COMPANY

Studies estimate nearly-80% of colleges and universities are currently using some form of automation in their operations. But what happens when these operations hit a wall? 3rd party apps don't communicate with each other. Before you know it, this 20% controls the other 80%.

Additionally, there is a strong presence of physical documents that always loom and block methods of efficiency. For the most part, there's always be some form of physical paperwork, forms, emails or other content unable to digitally convert, and while many processes move completely towards automation, this can leave your remaining processes staggering. This is where IRIS comes in.
